SAA FY' 24 Financial Statements

Helen Cedeno presented the SAA FY' 24 Financial Statements for the committee. Helen explained that 10 – 15% are required in reserves and $579,863.00 is available in cash. Adjustments will be made based on how much bad debt we have. The opinion of the audit is to show that we are in good standing. The net position shows how much cash and assets the association owns. This amount dropped from last year which is a good sign that we are spending the student activity fees accordingly and not putting the funds into surplus. Page 14 of the statement shows a breakdown of all of the expenses throughout the year. The association generated over $3.4 million dollars last year. This number will increase this year as enrollment has gone up and the activity fee has increased for the FY '25 year.

Motion #3: Motion to approve Budget Committee Items as a Slate – In-Deria Barrows
Second: Jamella Richmond
Vote: Favor [8] Opposed [0] Abstained [0]
Action: Motion passed
Discussion: This is 90% of the budget that was approved back in May 2024. It was clarified that the Recreation budget handles events related to the student body while the Athletics budgets focuses mainly of personnel. The Quality of Life budget focuses on improving the quality of life for all students and is managed by CSIL. CSIL uses these funds by holding events and activities that support student engagement.

Motion #4: Motion to approve the Slate – Daniel Matos
Second: Jeff Mathew
Vote: Favor [8] Opposed [0] Abstained [0]
Action: Motion passed

Conflict of Interest Form
Lisa-Marie Williams and Mark Flower clarified what would constitute a conflict of interest regarding this committee.

Community Outreach and Women's Center Budgets
There are currently two earmarks for these two areas. Community Outreach was primarily funded through CUNY, but funding ended after the pandemic. Activities in this area has ramped down and remaining staff were moved to assist in other areas. With declining engagement at the Women's Center, their programming with transition across CSIL and the LGBTQ+ centers. The Immigrant Student Success will be moved into the Women's Center space to keep up with their high student traffic and need for more space.

These funds will be open to proposals from the college similar to the Faculty, Student, and Staff Engagement Program. Proposals can be sent to the SAA Office to be reviewed for approvals to disperse funds. Proposals must be oriented towards activities related to subject matter based around these two offices.
